DOUBLE LINE CROSSING on Main Street

This is a reminder that crossing the double, solid line is a traffic violation, not only in Stoughton but throughout the Province. Backing up across the double line from a parking spot is especially dangerous.

PLEASE drive carefully and with concern for your own safety and the safety of others.

Sask Alert App

The SaskAlert App allows users to choose to receive emergency public alerts for the entire province, a particular municipality or a First Nation community. The app can target residents in a geographic area if urgent information is specific to one region or municipality within the province.

Fall Clean-Up

Public Works will collect bundled branches & trimmings and bagged leaves and clippings.

October 23, 2020

For Seniors Only

Please leave items neatly stacked at the curb for pickup.

Check out the Town of Stoughton website for Sask Fall Activity Guidelines.

House numbers are mandatory.

Please ensure your house number is on display and visible from the street. This ensures emergency crews can locate your property in an emergency.

Friendly reminder that property taxes are due by December 31 to avoid any late charges!

Town Office will be closed November 11 in observance of Remembrance Day.

Lest We Forget.
